

Susan I. Santana serves as Assistant Vice President, External Affairs for the new AT&T. In this capacity, Ms. Santana is responsible for developing strategies and plans for achieving corporate legislative objectives and presents company positions to third party stakeholders. She is responsible for developing and managing long-term partnership relationships with key constituency groups to positively impact their understanding of and communication with AT&T. Prior to AT&T, Ms. Santana served as Government Affairs Counsel for Dell Incorporated. Her responsibilities included conveying Dell's key policy messages and business interests to policy makers in Congress in the areas of Trade, Energy & Environment, Telecom, Diversity and Education. Prior to going in-house, Ms. Santana was a senior associate in the area of Corporate Diversity Counseling in the Public Policy Group. She assisted clients on diversity-related issues such as minority business procurement, workforce diversity, strategic business partnering, community outreach and government relations. Before joining Holland & Knight, Ms. Santana served as the Executive Director of the Hispanic Heritage Awards Foundation in Washington, DC. In this capacity, she was charged with implementing the Foundation's programs and overseeing the administration and operational duties. In 1998, Ms. Santana was an international law corporate attorney for the law firm of Baker and McKenzie in San Diego, California specializing in cross-border transactions. During her tenure there, Ms. Santana was elected to serve as the General Counsel for the San Diego County Hispanic Chamber of Commerce.

Prior to practicing law, Ms. Santana received a fellowship with the Congressional Hispanic Caucus and clerked for a federal judge on the U.S. District Court in the District of Columbia. She received her bachelor's degrees from the University of California at Berkeley, and earned her law degree in from UCLA School of Law.

Currently, she serves on the Board of Directors for the Congressional Hispanic Caucus Institute, the Congressional Hispanic Leadership Institute and the Hispanic Bar Association of D.C.